Superstitious Belief

1. Knocking on Wood

You've probably knocked on wood to avoid jinxing yourself at some point in your life without knowing why. This widely-known superstition is a modern take from medieval times, where European churchgoers would touch wood the churches claimed was from the cross, according to Yahoo. Touching the wood supposedly gave a connection to divinity and thus good luck.

2. The Evil Eye

Has someone ever complimented something you own only for it to later to be broken or ruined? Some superstitious folk might say that was the evil eye at work. To guard against such disastrous gazes, people in Turkey have an amulet called the "nazar boncuğu." The charms are typically blue and white (blue is thought to be a ward of the evil eye as well), and resemble an eye themselves. These charms are common sights in Greece, Egypt, Iran, Morocco and Afghanistan, among other countries.

3. Black Cats/Birds

Black cats have always had a bad rap, especially around Halloween, given their perceived allegiance to witches. The poor critters are just as avoided any day of the year, and it's common superstition that a black cat crossing your path is bad luck. But they're not alone. In South Korea, crows are seen as bad luck and possibly even harbingers or death. Ravens too, especially in the U.K., could foretell doom. There's an old British superstition that says six ravens must remain at the Tower of London at all times or the crown will fall. And in Ireland and Scotland, seeing a single magpie is supposed bad luck, but two or more is fine.

4. Trimming Nails at Night

Apparently it's bad luck to trim your finger or toenails after dark, at least according to superstitions in Turkey, India and South Korea. One Japanese superstition even claims you could have a premature death. Historically, knives or other sharp cutting tools would be used to trim long nails. Darkness plus sharp objects and a then-lack of medical access could have equaled deadly infections.

5. Tuesday the 13th

In Spain and Spanish speaking countries, it's Tuesday the 13th that gets people wound up. Martes, Tuesday in Spanish, comes from the Roman god of war, Mars, forever tying the day to violence, death and bloodshed. In conjunction, Constantinople supposedly fell on a Tuesday during the Fourth Crusade. And then Ottoman Turks supposedly claimed the city on a Tuesday more than 200 years later.

RARE DISEASES IN THE WORLD

Blue Skin Disorder or Methemoglobinemia

This is because of a rare medical condition known as methemoglobinemia. This makes your blood appear to be blue. People suffering from the condition have blue skin, lips, and nails. This is one among many rare conditions in the world which is a blood disorder. In this condition, there is an abnormal amount of methemoglobin in our body. Methemoglobin is a form of haemoglobin that makes our blood appear blue. The cause of blue skin disorder is genetic or sometimes can be due to exposure to some chemicals and drugs. Most people with the condition receive methylene blue for the treatment of the condition.

Pseudobulbar affect

Pseudobulbar affect (PBA) is a condition that's characterized by episodes of sudden uncontrollable and inappropriate laughing or crying. Pseudobulbar affect typically occurs in people with certain neurological conditions or injuries, which might affect the way the brain controls emotion. If you have pseudobulbar affect you'll experience emotions normally, but you'll sometimes express them in an exaggerated or inappropriate way. As a result, the condition can be embarrassing and disruptive to your daily life. Pseudobulbar affect often goes undiagnosed or is mistaken for mood disorders. Once diagnosed, however, pseudobulbar affect can be managed with medication.

Parasomnia

A parasomnia is a sleep disorder that involves unusual and undesirable physical events or experiences that disrupt your sleep. A parasomnia can occur before or during sleep or during arousal from sleep. If you have a parasomnia, you might have abnormal movements, talk, express emotions or do unusual things. You are really asleep, although your bed partner might think you're awake. While parasomnias are common, they can make it difficult to get restful sleep. The behavior might also disrupt the sleep of other people near you. Additionally, some parasomnias can be dangerous because you're unaware of your surroundings. They can also have health-related side effects, such as psychological stress.

Myositis

Myositis is the name for a group of rare conditions. The main symptoms are weak, painful or aching muscles. This usually gets worse, slowly over time. You may also trip or fall a lot, and be very tired after walking or standing. If you have any of these symptoms you should see a GP. Myositis is usually caused by a problem with your immune system, where it mistakenly attacks healthy tissue. For those of us with chronic autoimmune diseases, such as the idiopathic inflammatory myopathies, generally referred to as myositis, stress can be even more damaging.

Most Beautiful Places In The World

- 1.Zhangye Danxia Geopark, China - Geology lovers and avid instagrammers alike will be drawn to the other worldly hues of the “Rainbow Mountains.”The colors were formed by the layering of sedimentary mineral deposits over millions of years, but it’s hard to look at the following reds, yellows, and oranges and not feel like you’re witness to magic.
- 2.Japan in Cherry Blossom Season – While Japan is beautiful year-round, the few weeks each spring when cherry trees across the country explode with blossoms is a particularly pretty time to visit.
- 3.Forbidden City, Beijing, China – Located in the center of Beijing, the Forbidden City was the imperial palace of China’s emperors for five centuries and is one of the most beautifully preserved examples of ancient Chinese architecture.
- 4.Bagan, Myanmar – The ancient city in central Myanmar is made up of thousands (yes, thousands) of Buddhist temples and pagodas. One of the prettiest views is from above -we recommend going for a hot air balloon ride at sunrise.
- 5.Marrakesh, Morocco – Located at foot of the Atlas Mountains, Marrakesh has changed little since the middle Ages. You could spend days here wandering around maze-like alleyways discovering the city’s colorful souks, palaces and gardens.
- 6.Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, Abu Dhabi, UAE – With 82 domes and enough room to accommodate 40,000 worshippers, the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque is not only one of the largest mosques in the world but also one of the most beautiful with a marble courtyard featuring mosaics of flowers native to the Middle East.
- 7.Pamukkale, Turkey – Pamukkale’s electric-blue thermal pools and white travertine formations, naturally formed by slowly crystallizing calcium carbonate, make for gorgeous vacation photos.
- 8.Table Mountain, Cape Town – Ascending iconic Table Mountain tops the list for most travelers in Cape Town. Adventurous hikers can go on foot, but there’s also an aerial cable way that gently sweeps up to the 3,563-foot summit. Either way, the top offers insane panoramic views of the South African capital and the Atlantic.
- 9.Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe and Zambia – One of the seven natural wonders of the world, Victoria Falls spans the Zimbabwe and Zambia borders. “The smoke that thunders,” as it is known to locals, and its surroundings, are hubs for white-water rafting, helicopter rides, big-game safaris and other thrilling adventures.
- 10.Whitehaven Beach, Australia – Whitehaven Beach is arguably one of the loveliest shores in the world. Part of Australia’s Whitsunday Coast, the star attraction is remarkable for its amazing combination of pure silica sands and vivid blue-green waters.

நான் வேகமாக ஓழக்கொண்டே இருந்தேன். எந்த நிடத்திலும் நிற்கவில்லை. ஆனால் கால்களில் வலி இல்லை. அவன் யார்? எங்கோ பார்த்தோ முகம், ஆனால் இவன் தான் என்ற தெளிவு கிடைக்கவில்லை. அவன் எதற்கு துரத்துகிறான்? நான் எதற்கு ஒடுக்கிறேன்? காரணம் என் ஆழ்மனதில் ஆழமாய் தேழனாலும் ஆராய முழயவில்லை. எந்த மூலம் முடிக்கில் சென்று மகறந்து கொண்டாலும் தேழக்கண்டுபிழத்து விடுகிறான். ஆள் பார்க்க சீற்று உடல் பருமனாகவும் கண்கள் சீவந்தும் காணப்பட்டது. ஒரு தெளிவான அமைப்பு தெரியவில்லை என்றாலும் பார்த்ததும் மனதில் யம் புருந்தது. எங்கீழிருந்து இந்த ஒட்டம் தொடங்கியிர்று? நான் இப்பொழுது எங்கீழிருக்கிறேன் என்று தெரியவில்லை. எனக்கு நெருக்கமான சில நயர்களை சந்தித்தாலும் அவர்கள் கண்களுக்கு என்னவோ அவன் நல்லவனாக தெரிகிறான்போலும். அவனது பார்க்கவே என்னை பதற வைத்தது. எனக்கு பைத்தியம் பிழத்தது போல் இருந்தது. யத்தால் அழுதுகொண்டே இருந்தேன். அப்பா, அம்மா எல்லோரும் ஒருவரும் எனக்கு துகண்யாக இல்லை அப்பழிய என் திதயத்தை இறுக்கி பிழத்ததுபோல் முச்சை விடாமல் அடக்கி வைத்துக்கொண்டது போன்ற உணர்வு. வியர்க்கிறது ஆனால் வியர்க்கவே வள்ளவில்லை. நான் ஓழக்கொண்டேதான் உள்ளேன். நான் அவனை நிரும்பியாக்கவில்லை. ஆனால் அவன் என் அருகில் நெருங்கும் உணர்வு எனக்கு தெரிகிறது. அவன் என் அருகில் நெருங்கும் போது என் பாதுகாப்புணர்க்கவே குலைத்தது. யத்தில் கத்துக்கிறேன் சத்தம் கோட்கவில்லை. மீண்டும் கீழே விழுந்து புரண்டு ஒடுக்கிறேன். இப்பொழுது ஒரு உயரமான பகுதியின் எல்லையில் நான் நிற்கிறேன். அது ஒரு அடிக்குமாற கட்டுமதா? இல்லை உயரமான மலையுகுதியா? என்று புலப்படவில்லை. முதலில் எனக்கு வாழ வேண்டும் என்ற உணர்வு அவனிடம் இருந்து தப்பிக்க தூண்டியது. ஆனால் இப்பொழுதோ அவனிடம் சிக்கி என் உயிர் போவதற்கு பதிலாக இந்த உயர்த்தில் இருந்து கீழே குதித்து விடலாம் என்ற எண்ணம். தெரியத்தை வளர்த்து கொண்டு தடதடவன குதித்தேன். குதிக்கும் போது யத்தில் கண்ணை மூழக்கொண்டேன். முச்சு சீற்று சீற்றாக குறைவதை உணர்ந்தேன்.

கண் விழிக்கிறேன் கனவு. இவ்வளவு நேரம் நடந்தது அனைத்தும் கனவு. ஒரு நொழில் உயிர் உடலையிடு சிரிந்து மீண்டும் வந்தது. இருண்டறையில் கைகளால் தயரயை தடவி தொலைபேசியை தேழினேன். மணி 02:45 மீண்டும் படுத்து உறங்க முற்பாடேன். கீழ்முறை தூக்கம் வரவில்லை. மனதில் நிறைய கேள்விகள் தோன்றிற்று. நமக்கு என யாருமே இல்லை. தாயும் தந்தையும் எனக்கு ஆயத்து என்றால் தன் உயிர் போகும் வரை எப்படியாவது போராட காப்பாற்றுவார்கள். ஒரு வேதன அவர்கள் இல்லாத நேரம் ஏதாவது நீர்ந்தால்ல???

பலநாள் கழித்து யத்தால் மீண்டும் அம்மாவின் அருகில் சென்று படுத்தேன். அம்மா அந்த ஆழ்ந்த தூக்கத்திலும் என்னாயிற்று? என்று கேட்டால். கெட்ட கனவு என்றேன். ஒன்றுமில்லை ஒன்றுமில்லை யம்படாதே. நான் இருக்கிறேன் என்றாள். என் வயதோ இருபத்து மூன்று இருப்பினும் அம்மாவின் அரவனைப்பில் தான் ஒரு அமைதியான மன நிலை கிடைக்கிறது.

Bizarre Games

AQUATHALON (Underwater Wrestling)

Aquathlon also known as underwater wrestling is an underwater sport, where two competitors wearing masks and fins wrestle underwater in an attempt to remove a ribbon from each other's ankle band in order to win the bout. The "Combat" takes place in a 5-metre (16 ft) square ring within a swimming pool, and is made up of three 30-second round, with a fourth played in the event of a tie. The sport originated during the 1980s in the former USSR (now Russia) and was first played at international level in 1993. It was recognized by the confederation Mondiale des Activities subaquatiques (CMAS) in 2008.
